It was raining hard at Wailuku all day on Thursday of this week. This week has been a very dry one at Lahaina. Not a drop of rain during the entire week.

Messrs. Wm. White, by order of the court, and D. H. Kabaulelio, made their maiden addresses before the jury this week. Mr. White defended a native named Wm. Kaka, charged with perjury. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, three dissenting, notwithstanding White's veteran like appearance pleading before the jury like a barrister of long experience. On Friday, Mr. Kabaulelio argued in conjunction with Mr. Richardson in defense of Oscar Kaeo, a young Lahainaluna gentleman charged with forgery. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, two dissenting.

The Second Circuit Court now holding its December term at Lahaina. The last of the Hawaiian criminal cases was completed last Friday, and next Monday, Dec 19 the foreign jurors will be in attendance to try foreign criminal cases. Mr. Thompson, deputy clerk of the judiciary department has declared, that this is one of the heaviest term that ever occurred in any of the outside circuits. Judging by the way the cases are dragged along, the term will likely close after Christmas. The court is sitting day and night. Chamber cases have lasted until nearly 11 o'clock at night in several instances.

Mr. Jno. Richardson reached his 45th birthday last Wednesday, and today Hon. A. M. Kopoikai reaches his 37th birthday. The two gentlemen will celebrate a joint-birthday party at the former's Lahaina home this evening. Their numerous friends are wishing them many happy returns of the day.

The steamer Lehua arrived at Lahaina last Friday and reported that she was unable to land pails at the Leper Settlement owing to rough weather. She left again in her afternoon for the Settlement via Lanai to make another attempt to land her freight.

The following attorneys return to Honolulu per S. S. Kinan this afternoon from Lahaina: Messrs. C. Creighton, McClanahan, E. Johnson, L. A. Dickey and A. A. Wilder. Mr. C. A. Doyle also return to town.

The Hawaiian jurors were excused for the balance of December term by the court today.

The foreign jurors have been subpoenaed and will appear at the December term of the Second Circuit Court at Lahaina on Monday morning, Dec. 19.

Another concert for the benefit of Waihee church will be given at Halealoha next Tuesday, Dec. 20. The concert has been set for that date in order to accommodate the foreign jurors. It is removed that several of the most influential gentlemen of Lahaina will take part in the exercises.
